“Directive 2003/110/EC” shall mean the Council Directive 2003/110/EC of 25 November 2003, according to the contribution during the transit in case of expulsion through the airway.”

Expulsion from the Republic of a third-country national through the airway and via another Schengen
Member State.

18B. – (1) When the Director requests the expulsion of a third-country national under the article 14 of the present Law and the return of such a national shall be realized through the airway, he shall examine if a direct flight to the state of destination is available.

(2) In the case that the return of the third-country national is not possible with a direct flight to the state of destination, for reasonable and practical reasons, the Director may ask a transit via another Schengen Member State with an application to the central authority of the state in question.

It is evident that the Director should not apply for transit through the airway of another Schengen Member State, if the expulsion measure requests an airport change within the Member State to which the application is addressed.

(3) The transit application through the airway requested by the Director to the central authority of the state, to which the application is addressed, shall be submitted through the form, shown at the Appendix I of the present Law.

Appendix I

(4) The Director shall not request the transit through the airway without the approval of the central authority of the state to which the application is addressed.

(5) Independently from the provision of section (4) of the present article, in the case that the central authority of the state to which the application is addressed, does not announce its decision to the Director within two days, a period which can be extended for other 48 hours in duly justified cases, according to the judgment of the Member State to which the application is addressed, the Director may request the beginning of the transit operation by a notification to the state to which the application is addressed.

(6) For the accomplishment of the application under section (2) of the present article, the Director shall transit to the central authority of the state to which the application is addressed, the information included in the application form shown in Appendix I of the present Law and the approval of the transit through the airway, according to the Appendix I

Appendix I

(7) The Republic is obliged to accept immediately the third-country national if:

(a) the central authority of the state to which the application is addressed has rejected the application or has revoked the transit permit;

(b) during the transit, the third-country national entered the state to which the application is addressed without permit;

(c) the expulsion of the third-country national to another state of transit or to the state of destination or the boarding to the transit flight failed; or

(d) the transit through the airway was not possible due to other reasons.

(8) The expenses resulting during the expulsion reentrance of a third-country national shall devolve the Republic.

(9) In the case that the central authority of the state to which the application is addressed approves the application or in the case of a transit through the airway by a notification, the Director shall proceed to all the duly regulations in order to ensure that the transit operation shall be realizing as sooner as possible and in anyway no later than within twenty-four hours.

It is evident that the above deadline may be extended for other 48 hours maximum, in the case that the transit operation cannot be completed and the central authority of the state to which the application is addressed, after the Director's application and a consultation between them, takes all the necessary contribution measures for the continuation of the transit operation.

(10) The expenses resulting from the rendering of the services of the central authority of the state to which the application is addressed related to –

(a) the rendering of emergency medical care from the relevant authorities of the state to which the application is addressed, to a third-country national and his attendant if it is necessary,

(b) the nutrition of a third-country national and his attendant if it is necessary and

(c) whatever services provided by the state to which the application is addressed under article 5 of the Directive 2003/110/EC, in the degree that these services are real and measurable, shall devolve the Republic.

(11) In the case that the third-country national shall be expelled with the attendant, the powers of his attendants during the transit operation through the airway shall be limited to the self-defense and in the case of absence of a member of the police force in the state of transit, the attendants may take a reasonable and proportional action for the confrontation of a direct and severe danger in order to prevent the escapement of the third-country national, or the cause of bodily harm to himself or to others or whatever damages.

(12) Under any circumstances, attendants shall abide with the legislation of the state of transit.

(13) Attendants shall not carry weapons during the transit through the airway and are obliged to wear civil attire and demonstrate means in order to prove their identity, including the transit permit provided by the state of transit or, depending on the case, the notification which is referred to section (5) of the present article, after an application by the relevant authorities of the state of transit.

Application submission for transit through the airway via a non-Schengen
Member State
to the Republic.

18C – (1) The central authority for the collection of applications from non-Schengen Member States for transit via the Republic through the airway shall be the Director.

(2) Subject to obligations of Article 18D, the Director may refuse to the applicant Member State the transit through the airway, in the case that –

(a) criminal proceedings may be exercised against the third-country national due to offenses committed in the Republic, or in the case that the national in question is wanted in the Republic in order to serve a sentence,

(b) the transit of the third-country national through other Member States or his acceptance by the state of destination are not possible.

(c) the expulsion measure requests the change of airport within the Republic.

(d) the necessary contribution is not possible during the particular period for practical reasons, or

(e) the third-country national is regarded as a threat to the public order, the public security, the public health or the international relations of the Republic.

(3) In the case of paragraph (d) of section (2) of the present article, the Director shall appoint a date to the central authority of the applicant state, as sooner as possible and as closer as possible to the firstly requested date during which a contribution to a transit through the airway can be provided given the fact that the rest conditions shall be fulfilled.

(4) The transit permit through the airway which has already issued by the Director may be revoked as long as facts are a posteriori signified, in the meaning of section (2) of the present article, and these facts justify the refusal for transit.

(5) The Director shall notify immediately the central authority of the applicant state for the application's rejection or the revocation of the permit of transit through the airway according to sections (2) and (4) of the present article or for any other reasons which make the transit impossible and shall explain the reasons.

(6) The Director shall notify immediately the central authority of the applicant state for his decision and in anyway, in two days time, period which may be extended for other 48 hours maximum in duly justified cases.

(7) No transit through the airway shall begin without the Director's approval:

It is evident that in the case that the Director shall fail to answer within the provided by section (6) deadline to the central authority of the applicant state, the applicant state may begin the transit operation by a notification to the Director.

(8) Subject to any provisions of section (13) of the present article, the transit operation shall be realized within twenty-four hours.

(9) Independently from the provisions of article 18B and the present article, the Republic may establish bilateral or multilateral agreements or regulations with other Schengen Member States on the basis of which the beginning of the transit operation shall be permitted, only by the notification from the applicant state and in such a case it shall notify the relevant agreements or regulations to the Commission.

(10) The Director shall define contact points for all the airports of the Republic with which a contact with the contact points of the another Schengen Member States may achieved, for the whole duration of the transit operation through the airway and he shall notify these contact points to the central authorities of the other Schengen Member States.

(11) The Director, subject to any mutual consultation with the central authority of the applicant state, in the framework of the available means and according to the relevant international standards, shall take any necessary contribution measures from the landing and the opening of the airplane's door and until the departure of the third-country national is ensured and more specifically he shall take the following measures:

(a) the reception of the third-country national and his attendance from the airplane within the transit airport, especially in order to be boarded on the connection flight;

(b) the provision of emergency medical care to the third-country national and its attendant if it is necessary

It is evident that no mutual consultations between the central authorities of the two countries shall be needed in this case;

(c) the nutrition of the third-country national and his attendant if it is necessary;

(d) the collection, saving and transmission of travel documents, especially in the case of expulsion without attendance.

(e) in the cases of expulsion without attendance, notifying the central authority of the applicant state according to the place and the time of departure of the third-country national from the territory of the Republic;

(f) the informing of the central authority of the applicant state according to severe serious events during the transit of the third-country national.

(12) The Director, when the provisions of the present Law or any other legislation, which is in force in the Republic, are observed may request:

(a) the guidance and the arrangement of the third-country national in a safe settlement,

(b) the utilization of legal means in order to prevent or cease any attempt of the third-country national to resist to the transit.

(c) Subject to the provision of article 6 of the Directive 2003/110/EC, in the case that the completion of the transit operation cannot be obtained, despite the contribution of the Republic, the Director after an application of the applicant state and after relevant consultation with it, may request the taking of all the necessary contribution measures for the continuation of the transit operation through the airway and in such a case the deadline of section (8) of the present article may be extended for other 48 hours maximum.

(14) The Director, who shall be responsible for all the taken measures, shall decide according to the nature and the degree of the provided contribution under section (11), (12), 13) of the present article.

(15) The provision of sections (11), (12) and (13) of article 18B of the present Law, shall be applied pro rata, in the cases where the state of transit is the Republic.

Subject to the application of Articles 18B and 18C.

18D. - The provisions of Articles 18B and 18C and the present Law, shall not offend the application of the obligations resulted by the Geneva Convention, which regards the Legal Status of Refugees, taken place on the 28 July 1951 in Geneva and is binding the Republic of Cyprus and includes the Protocol, which was ratified by the Protocol on the Legal Status of Refugees (Ratified) Law of 1968, by the Refugee's Law, by international conventions for the human rights and international convention for the extradition of persons in which the Republic is a contract member.
